

Corner Co-op Photo Release Form

Your child may be photographed throughout the year in school and on field trips by teachers and other parents. Children are given a photo album at the end of the year to commemorate the year. Please indicate whether we may use your child's photo in printed materials or online to promote Corner Co-op. Children appearing in photos with parents' permission may be identified as Corner Co-op students, but no other identifying information (name, address, etc.) will be released.
